

Implementing and Auditing the International Cyanide Management Code

The International Cyanide Management Institute (ICMI) will be conducting a one-day training workshop in Hermosillo, Mexico on Thursday, November 2, 2017. The program will focus on the implementation and auditing of the International Cyanide Management Code (Cyanide Code).

This Workshop is intended to assist gold and silver mining companies, cyanide transporters, and other stakeholders in their understanding of the Cyanide Code's expectations for the responsible management of cyanide and instruct auditors verifying Cyanide Code compliance on how to evaluate mines and cyanide transporters and make their findings.

The Workshop will provide an opportunity for gold and silver mining companies that have not yet become signatories to learn about the Cyanide Code first-hand and for personnel from the 23 gold mines and cyanide transporters in Mexico that are currently certified or designated to be certified to refresh and expand their understanding of the Code. Workshop participants will be able to discuss in person those issues of greatest importance to them with ICMI officials, and to share experiences with others who have successfully implemented the Cyanide Code at their operations. It also will give insight into the procedural and interpretive aspects of the Code that will prepare operations for successful audits and make Code auditors more effective.

The Workshop

The Workshop will focus on the Cyanide Code's certification program and the issues associated with implementing and auditing the Cyanide Code at gold mines and cyanide transport operations. ICMI Vice President Dr. Eric Schwamberger will discuss the intent of each of the Cyanide Code's Principles and Standards of Practice, along with the Cyanide Code's expectations for performance and the measures typically necessary to achieve that performance. Interpretive guidance will be provided on how auditors are to use their professional judgment in determining whether an operation is in compliance with the Cyanide Code. The presentation will provide participants with the critical knowledge and understanding of the Cyanide Code necessary to identify appropriate and acceptable measures to improve cyanide management and meet the Code's performance-based goals.

The Workshop is intended for stakeholders in the gold and silver mining industry interested in the implementation and verification of the International Cyanide Management Code. Miners, environmental and safety managers, cyanide producers and transporters, government regulatory personnel, and NGOs with interest in gold mining should all find the Workshop beneficial in enhancing their understanding of this voluntary industry code of practice.

The Workshop on November 2 will be conducted in English with simultaneous translation to Spanish.

The Venue

The Workshop will be held at the Lucerna Hotel, Blvd. Paseo del Río Sonora Norte #98, Col. Proyecto Río Sonora, Hermosillo, Sonora C.P. 83270, Mexico. The hotel can be reached at +52 (662) 259 5200, or <http://www.hoteleslucerna.com/hermosillo/>. Workshop participants are responsible for making their own arrangements for lodging and transportation.
